Following on from Aaron Wan Bissaka's visit to school last week, there was an article in a national newspaper about his visit! You can read the whole article in The Guardian by clicking on the link:

A special thank you goes to Joe Stone from The Man on the Moon pub for his generous donation of 16 sets of shin pads. They will be put to very good use, thank you.

When Aaron visited school, he signed two footballs, you can see one of them in the picture above. We will be raffling these after half term for £1 a ticket. All money raised will go towards encouraging sport in school.

Book Week

Thank you to everyone for your support for book week. It was wonderful to see the children dressed up as book characters yesterday. The children had a superb day on Monday when David Wood, an author and playwright, led a whole school assembly followed by workshops for every child. Thank you to those who have already sent in £1 as a contribution towards this special visitor.

*Have a lovely half term break.
School re-opens on Monday 25th
