Mother's Day stall donations Our Mother's Day stall event is nearly here. Please donate any unopened or unwanted women gifts in 'good' condition to the school office by Monday 2nd March.

Mother's Day stall Our Mother's Day Stall is on Thursday 12th March and Friday 13th March. Gift items available for sale from £1.50 to £5. Don't forget to send money with your child so they can buy a lovely gift for their mum.

School Book Fair This year's school book fair will be on Monday 16th and Tuesday 17th March from 3.15pm until 4.15pm open to all year groups.

Parents of young children are kindly asked to accompany their child when visiting the book fair on these days.

All books which are on display can be purchased on the day by scanning a QR code and using debit/credit card to pay. Only the books which are displayed on these days can be purchased, we cannot order anymore or any other books.

We look forward to seeing to there.

Attendance

Our winning class this week is Nursery with 100% attendance - very impressive!

Fr Con's Reflection

This school week ends with the 10th day of the 40-day Holy Season of Lent.

The 1st day of Lent, Ash Wednesday, was February 18th. That day, the intention of the morning Mass read "A BLESSED LENT FOR OUR SCHOOL FAMILY". So, Lent will conclude, this year, on March 29th- Palm Sunday- the opening day of HOLY WEEK.

This coming Saturday, February 28th, brings down the curtain on the opening 2 months of 2026.

Let us thank God for His gifts and for His Grace(s) in that time, and for His blessings during Lent.

Have a lovely weekend, Mrs Day
