Father Con's Reflection

POPE FRANCIS RIP

EARLY ON EASTER MONDAY MORNING.
POPE FRANCIS DIED, AGED 88,

He had been seriously ill for quite some time, and in the end yielded up his life, following a stroke and heart failure.

He always had great concern for the suffering children of the world. (He would telephone a priest contact in Gaza, on a nightly basis, for example). We all know that many children, usually alongside their mothers, who have lost their lives in that terrible Palestine-Israel conflict.

He was just about able to give a very short blessing to all the crowds in St Peter's Square, and ride briefly in the Popemobile, on Easter Sunday.

MAY HE REST IN PEACE. AMEN.

Good Shepherd's Tributes to Pope Francis

At school we all reflected upon the good work that Pope Francis did. Each class made a book of remembrance and lit candles during a special service.
