- Foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it

2. Legislation and guidance

This document meets the requirements under the following legislation:

This document is also based on Department for Education (DfE) guidance: The Equality Act 2010 and schools.

This document also complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

4. Eliminating discrimination

The school is aware of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and complies with non-discrimination provisions.

Where relevant, our policies include reference to the importance of avoiding discrimination and other prohibited conduct.

Staff and governors are regularly reminded of their responsibilities under the Equality Act, for example during meetings.

All staff receive refresher training every January inset day.

The school has a designated member of staff for monitoring equality issues, and an equality link governor. They regularly liaise regarding any issues and make senior leaders and governors aware of these as appropriate.

5. Advancing equality of opportunity

As set out in the DfE guidance on the Equality Act, the school aims to advance equality of opportunity by:

- Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people which are connected to a particular characteristic they have
- Taking steps to meet the particular needs of people who have a particular characteristic
- Encouraging people who have a particular characteristic to participate fully in any activities

In fulfilling this aspect of the duty, the school will:

- Analyse data to determine strengths and areas for improvement and implement actions in response to this
- Analyse our behaviour monitoring system (CPOMS) each term to identify any trends and address this

6. Fostering good relations

The school aims to foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it by:

- Promoting tolerance, friendship and understanding of a range of religions and cultures through different aspects of our curriculum. This includes teaching in RE, citizenship and personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education, but also activities in other curriculum areas
- Holding assemblies dealing with relevant issues. Pupils will be encouraged to participate in such assemblies and we will also invite external speakers to contribute
- Encouraging and implementing initiatives to share and celebrate differences between groups of pupils within the school and the wider community.

7. Equality considerations in decision-making

The school ensures it has due regard to equality considerations whenever significant decisions are made.

The school always considers the impact of significant decisions on particular groups.

8. Equality objectives

1. To close the attainment and progress gap between boys and girls.

Research shows that there is a gap in attainment between boys and girls across reading, writing and maths. To achieve this, we will ensure that our curriculum appeals equally to both boys and girls and provide appropriate interventions where needed.

2. To improve the emotional wellbeing of our pupils.

Whole school focus on mental health and wellbeing. Staff training for all staff on recognising signs of low self-esteem, anxiety and trauma and strategies for supporting pupils.

3. Ensure that the curriculum promotes role models that young people positively identify with, which reflects the school's diversity in terms of race, gender and disability.

Staff review topics and resources used in all subject areas to ensure diversity and encourage pupils to contribute ideas of alternative role models where appropriate.

9. Monitoring arrangements

The headteacher will update the equality information we publish, at least every year.

This document will be reviewed by headteacher at least every 4 years.
